Safety & Adjustment

Dear Pastor and Church Family, April 2012
The last few weeks have been very busy ones for us. We have been busy packing and getting paperwork done for our visas. We will be moving to Peru on April 17!!! God has so graciously given us our support. We are looking forward to all that God has in store for us in the land where He has called us to serve Him. Not only has He given us our support, but He has provided a house for us to live in! Sarah has been counting the days until we get to live in our house.

This Tuesday, we will fly from Lubbock, Texas at 10:55 A.M. We will have two layovers – one in Dallas, and one in San Salvador. We land in Lima at 1:05 A.M. on Wednesday. Please pray for us as we fly. Please pray that all our luggage will arrive in Lima when we do! On May 7, we will be starting Language School! Please pray as we adjust to the language and the culture.

“I don’t know anything about the Bible!” “I trust no one!” “How do you know for sure God has only one Son?” These were the comments made to Sarah recently when she had the privilege of witnessing to a young lady named Lindsey. Lindsey came to church for the first time when we were in Austin. She did not get saved that day, but she is searching for the truth. Like many other Deaf, Lindsey has many misunderstandings about God and the Bible. Please pray for Lindsey’s salvation.

Please note that we have a new address. We are also in the process of streamlining our mailing list. If you would prefer to receive our prayer letter by e-mail, you can e-mail us at perudeafmissions@gmail.com. Please check out our website at: www.perudeafmissions.com. We have a blog on there and our prayer letters will also be posted on there.

In closing, we would like to say thank you to each of you. Thank you for your faithfulness to pray, love, support, and communicate with us. We appreciate each of you so very much! Thank you for allowing us to be you missionaries to the Deaf 1st in Peru, South America! We love you all very much!

In Christ,

Matt, Sarah, Martha, & Ian

Peru, South America
